Dear Ms. [REDACTED],

I appreciate you taking the time to commend the actions of Sergeant John O'Connor. Sergeant O'Connor is a talented individual who has dedicated his life to public service. For many law enforcement professionals, the most rewarding aspect of the job is helping others, whether it be changing a tire or assisting someone experiencing the worst moment of their life. Given the challenging nature of policing, your gratitude is tremendously meaningful to all the distinguished men and women that proudly serve this great city.

I will surely convey your kind words to Sergeant O'Connor.

Have a fantastic holiday season,

DEPUTY CHIEF R.J. PLOOF

Dear Deputy Chief R Ploof:

I am writing to express my gratitude for Sergeant John E. O'Connor (#115) of the Special Operations Division. A couple of weeks ago, I was parked on the side of the road off 301 with a blown tire waiting for help to change the tire. Sergeant O'Connor was on his way home and kindly pulled over and offered to change my tire. Not only did he change the tire, but he patiently showed me how to change a tire.

So often police officers are criticized and/or unappreciated and I just wanted to let you know what a kind-hearted Sergeant you have in your police force. Kudos to Sergeant O'Connor.

Sincerely,

Eva [REDACTED]
